Yemen-Egypt: Anti-Egyptian sentiment among Yemeni republican officials and tribal leaders appears to be increasing.]

[In recent days a number of Yemeni officials have told US Minister Cortada that they wish to be rid of the Egyptians so that they can solve their own problems. Those Yemeni leaders with a large tribal following tend to be anti-Egyptian, and one of the main tribal leaders who supports the republic reportedly is in hiding in fear of arrest by the Egyptians.]

[Only President Sallal, who is in Cairo for medical treatment, Vice President Al-Amri, and a small number of officials who owe their positions to the Egyptians, appear to remain willingly subservient to Cairo.]

[Cortada considers that the Yemenis will not be prepared to demand Egypt's withdrawal until ]

[The Yemenis apparently hope that ]

[ ] they can form a broader government and ask the Egyptians to leave.]

[Although a general uprising against the Egyptians does not now appear likely, a continuation of the Egyptian presence could lead to serious defections of major progovernment tribes to the royalists.]
